2011 Awards for Excellence

The Holy Cross Yearbook Award
Presented to a graduating student who has made significant contributions to the school yearbook. ..................................................Kendra Dafler and Erika Guigovaz

The Holy Cross Catholic Secondary School Award for Excellence
This award is presented to graduating students who demonstrate academic ability and a sense of school spirit……Stephanie Benton, Simone Cunningham, Julia DeBoer, Tiffany Desveaux, Brittany Fitzgerald, Melanie Fowler, Graham Rosa, Heather Lewis, Michael Nguyen, Nicole O’Sullivan, Ian Phillip, Justine Pineau, Gabrielle Porter, Samantha Searle and Lauren Smith

Monsignor Thomas Raby Award
Presented to a student who has demonstrated a commitment to their faith through community involvement and religious practice. ..........................................................................................................................Clare Stafford

The Alice Elizabeth Hawkins Memorial Bursary
Presented to a graduating female student who has demonstrated Catholic values and consistent generosity of spirit within the Holy Cross community over the past four years and who will pursue a degree, diploma, or apprenticeship program ..................................................................................................................Ciara Roberts

The School Council Award
Presented to a graduate who intends to pursue studies in college and who, in the opinion of the Holy Cross staff, has contributed significantly to school spirit and to the school community ..................................................................................................................Savannah Basley

The OYAP Award of Excellence in Apprenticeship
Presented to a graduating student for demonstrating outstanding ability in an apprenticeship program. ..........................................................................................................................Miranda Nadeau

The Brown’s Fine Food Service Award
Presented to a graduating student who exemplifies enthusiasm for learning. ..........................................................................................................................Will Hume

The Knights of Columbus Award (St. Paul the Apostle Parish)
Presented to male and female students who best exemplify Christian values through service to the church, the school, or the community and who will pursue post-secondary studies ..........................................................................................................................Will Hume and Megan Stewart

The Ontario English Catholic Teachers’ Association (OECTA) Scholarships (Algonquin and Lakeshore Unit)
Presented to students who are enrolled in a consecutive education degree program. ..........................................................................................................................Kelsey Amelotte and Rachel Weir

The Kingston Community Credit Union Award
Presented to a graduating student who, through cooperation, has provided a model for positive student involvement in the school Community ..........................................................................................................................Mike Vermeersch

The Backholm Family Award of Recognition
Presented to a graduating student pursuing post-secondary education. ..........................................................................................................................Miereille Golmeic and Derek Fox

The Holy Cross Technical Award
Presented to a graduating student from a technological course intending to enter an apprenticeship or college program. ..........................................................................................................................Andy Peterson

The Lieutenant Governor’s Community Volunteer Award
Presented to a graduating student for exemplary involvement in the community. ..........................................................................................................................Christine Smith

The Holy Cross Associate Teachers’ Subject Award
Presented to a graduating student who has excelled in more than one course in Arts and more than one course in Science ..........................................................................................................................Mary Grace DelaFuente and Kevin Guo

The Holy Cross Apaulo Award for Excellence in Audio and Video Production
Presented to a graduating student who will pursue university studies and who has demonstrated, during his or her high school career, creativity, technical innovation, and leadership to staff and students in the area of audio and video production. ..........................................................................................................................Ben Locke
The Holy Cross HCTV Award for Excellence in Audio and Video Production
Presented to a graduating student who will pursue college studies and who has demonstrated, during his or her high school career, creativity, technical innovation, and leadership to staff and students in the area of audio and video production.
.................................................................................................................................Stephanie Jodoin

The Scarpazza Homes Achievement Award
Presented to a graduate who has demonstrated a love for learning in technological design.
.................................................................................................................................Deanna Ridgley

The Holy Cross Catholic Secondary School Staff Association Awards
Presented by the Staff Association to a graduating student who is a model of excellence and who promotes community at Holy Cross.
.................................................................................................................................Trevor Reade

The Katharine Splinter Memorial Award
Presented to a graduating student who has contributed significantly to the music program and who is pursuing musical studies.
.................................................................................................................................Jennifer Roberts

The St. Lawrence Governor’s Entrance Scholarship
Entrance scholarship awarded to a graduate on the basis of academic achievement, special achievement and citizenship.
.................................................................................................................................Ashley Goodsell

The Kingston-Frontenac Rotary Club Award
Presented to a graduate who exhibits exemplary academic, athletic, and leadership involvement during his or her high school career.
.................................................................................................................................Dan Larocca

The Cataraqui Optimist Club of Greater Kingston
Presented to a graduate who has provided many volunteer hours in community service work.
.................................................................................................................................Marianna Evaristo

The Stewart Lovell Francis Award
Presented to two graduates pursuing mathematics or a mathematics-related program at the university level.
.................................................................................................................................Shannon Broekhoven and Kelsey Kirbyson

The Wilkinson & Company LLP Scholarship
Presented to a graduating student who has demonstrated academic excellence and who is pursuing business studies.
.................................................................................................................................Dan Larocca

The Holy Cross Citizenship Award
Presented to graduating students who have demonstrated a commitment to work ethic, community spirit, personal excellence and Catholic values.
.................................................................................................................................Connor Shkimba

The Rick Thompson Environmental Leadership Award
Presented to a graduating student who has made significant contributions to the school’s environmental initiatives and who dedicates themself to service
.................................................................................................................................Eden Cameron

The University of Toronto Book Award
Presented to a graduating student who has demonstrated academic excellence and who will pursue post-secondary studies at a Canadian university
.................................................................................................................................Kim Fleming

The Sister Marian McCallum Bursary
Presented to a graduating student who exemplifies the qualities of a Catholic student and who will pursue post-secondary studies at university in music, religion, or languages
.................................................................................................................................Emma Farant

Halpearn Theatre Award
Presented to graduating students who have made exemplary contributions to the theatre program during their four years at Holy Cross
.................................................................................................................................Ciara Roberts and Mike Vermeersch

The Nick Reed Memorial Visual Arts Award
Presented to the graduating students who have demonstrated artistic excellence, promoted the visual arts in the school and community and will pursue post secondary studies in art and art-related studies at the university and college levels
.................................................................................................................................Jonas Azeredo Lobo and Shelby McLeod
The Greg Hulse Award
Presented to the student who displays determination, drive, compassion, and the ability to perform to the highest level in any sporting, academic, community, or arts endeavour.

............................................................Claire McLean

The Joseph H. Duffey Award
Presented to a female graduate pursuing post-secondary education at a community college.

............................................................Miranda Nadeau

The Catholic Student Award
This award, sponsored by the Catholic Education Foundation of Ontario, is presented to the student who enhances the Catholic identity of Holy Cross Catholic Secondary School in the local community

............................................................Clare Stafford

The Principal’s International Student Recognition Award
Presented to the international graduate who has demonstrated academic excellence and has shown leadership in the international student group and the larger student population

...........................................................................................................................................................................................................Aertai Liu

The Charles C. Jefferies Engineering Award
Presented to a graduate who is pursuing a degree or diploma program in a branch of engineering and who, in the opinion of the school staff, exemplifies the qualities of a Catholic student

.......................................................................................................................................................................................................Mary Grace Garner

Carol A. Weir Award
Presented to a graduate who has been accepted into a concurrent education program and who, in the opinion of the school staff, exemplifies the qualities of a Catholic Student

.........................................................................................................................................................................................................Clare Stafford

The Kingston Engineers Bursary
Presented to a graduating student who has demonstrated academic excellence and who has been accepted to the first year of an engineering program.

....................................................................................................................................................................................................Malcolm Hodgskiss

The Gordon F. Tompkins Memorial Bursary
Is awarded to a graduating student planning to further studies toward a career in funeral services, or if none eligible, in palliative care, nursing, medical studies.

........................................................................................................................................................................................................Laura Donohue

The Margaret Purcell Student Bursary
This award recognizes Holy Cross students who have given many hours of volunteer service to those in need in the Kingston community.

....................................................................................................................................................................................................Alana Niles

The Crusaders in Community Service Spirit Award
Presented to a graduating student in recognition of his or her contributions to C.I.C.S. and his or her service to the school community.

.......................................................................................................................................................................................................Eden Cameron and Kathryn Doyle

The Archdiocese of Kingston Award
Presented to graduates for significant contribution to the faith element of the Church and/or school communities.

..................................................................................................................................................................................................Ciara Roberts and Clare Stafford

The Director of Education Award for Achievement
Presented to a graduating student for significant achievement in the school community

..................................................................................................................................................................................................Ciara Roberts

The Holy Cross Medal of Merit
Presented to the graduating student who achieves the highest standing in the Applied Program

.................................................................................................................................................................................................Jimmy Meilleur

The Stanley A. Sobol Memorial Scholarships
Presented to graduating students attending post-secondary institutions, who have exhibited academic excellence

...........................................................................................................................................................................Eden Cameron, Kim Fleming, Kelsey Kirbyson, Nick Tetraut

The Governor General’s Bronze Medal
Presented to the graduating student with the highest average

..................................................................................................................................................................................................Kelsey Kirbyson